 To: Alexanderfeld volost management

Guardians over the property of deceased Christian Wohl, local villagers Johann Bauer and Vincence Gauch have demanded 100 Roubles to be paid by debtor Wilhelm Jundt who borrowed this amount several years ago, but Jundt refused to do explaining that last year he gave a receipt for this amount to Georg Roduner, son-in-law of deceased Wohl, so he, Jundt is wishing to get the receipt back after the payment done. Alexanderhilf village management therefore asks most humbly to demand the receipt mentioned . . .

Village chairman /Fauser/

On February 11, 1894 I, undersigned Georg Roduner . . . am deposing the next: not the last year but the year before that I, along with my deceased father-in-law Wohl, visited Jundt who promised to give the money back in two weeks after he gets some funds from Ackermann . . . I didn't get from Jundt neither money nor receipt, I confirm that signing here.
