Border Crossings of Colonists into Russia at Grodno October 1808 – December 1809

This file contains lists of Colonists who crossed the border from Bailystok (on the border of the Duchy of Warsaw) into Russia at Grodno (now in Belarus). The file is written in Russian and consists of 917 families. It names the head of the family, the individuals included in the family with their relationship to the head, ages, and places of origin.

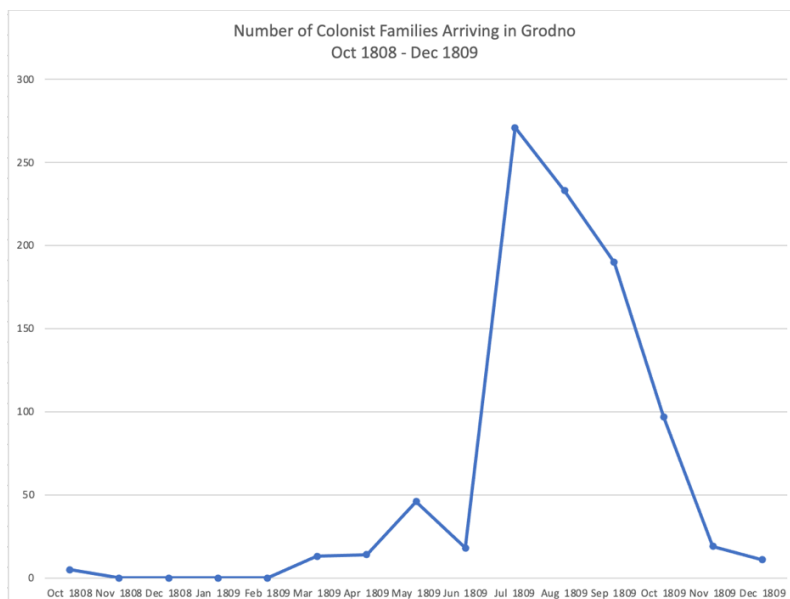

The file also documents the distribution of food allowance monies (40 kopeks for those age 16 and older and 24 kopeks for those under 16).

The Archive images were obtained by Sergey Safronov and were provided by him.

Overland Route to Grodno

The large majority of these families started their journey at Frankfurt am Main where they received their passports. From there they traveled overland in caravans to Frankfurt an der Oder and on through Bromberg (now Bydgoszcz, Poland) to Bialystok to Grodno. The distance from Frankfurt an der Oder to Grodno is approximately 740 kilometers. After a few days rest in Grodno the majority of families continued their journey on to Ekaterinoslav which is another 1120 kilometers distant from Grodno where they spent the winter of 1809 – 1810.
