

Diocese of Tiraspol Roman Catholic Church Death Records, 1865 to 1880.

RASTADT and MUENCHEN, Beresan, Odessa

The Germany colony of Rastadt (Rastatt) was founded in 1809 by families from Baden, Rhineland-Pflaz and Alsace. A Catholic Parish was established already in 1811, and the first small church was built in 1812. A larger church was built of fieldstone in 1830. Eventually this one proved too small as well, and another church was built in 1872, the ruins of which can be visited today. This church was constructed of quarried limestone, 17 m wide by 43 m long (or 56 by 140 feet). The double towers reached to 130 feet. The church was closed in 1936; the clocks were removed, and the spires pulled down by the Soviets. The picture to the right is from 1942. Rastadt today is called Porichchya (as Google Maps spells it) or in Cyrillic – Пориччя. Both photos from Joseph Schnurr – Die Kirchen und das Religiöse Leben der Russlanddeutschen.

About a mile to the west was the colony of München or Hradivka on today's map of Ukraine – in Cyrillic – Градивка. The first settlers arrived in 1810. The colonists of München belonged to the Parish of Rastadt. A church was built in München in 1872, but München did not become an independent parish until 1890. Source – Joseph Schnurr.

Death records for the Parish of Rastadt were obtained from the Russian State Archives in Saratov, Russia, for the years: 1865, 1866, 1869, 1870, 1872, 1873, 1878, 1879, and 1880. One thousand and eighty-six (1,086) deaths were recorded in the Rastatt Roman Catholic Parish in the years indicated, and are indexed by year in the following pages. A special thanks to David Kilwien for indexing these records. The indexes were reviewed by Will Enus, Harvey Eberle, Bob Deck and Mervin Weiss. These death records list the maiden names of the wives and the mothers, and also the surviving children of any adults who died.
